WORSE THAN APARTHEID: BLACK IN OBAMA'S AMERICA

Por. 4 Dec 2014. Consider these two astounding facts: “The United States incarcerates a higher proportion of blacks than apartheid South Africa did. In America, the incarceration rate for blacks is higher than the rate for whites. This is not just a matter of fear or prejudice. It is a matter of systematic racism and economic injustice.”

Foreign relations of South Africa during apartheid - Wikipedia, the free encyclopedia. "In 1999, the United States and South Africa signed the Sanctions Act of 1999, which maintained economic sanctions against South Africa until the end of apartheid in 1994. The act also provided for conditional sanctions against South Africa's international partners."
