The Resolving Conflict Creatively Program (RCCP) is a universal, school-based program designed to help children in grades prekindergarten through 12th grade develop social, cognitive, and emotional skills. Teachers deliver classroom lessons that focus on key skills such as active listening, empathy, and conflict resolution. The curriculum is designed to be adaptable for use in grades K–2 and grades 3–5.

This curriculum, based on the Resolving Conflict Creatively Program, provides teachers with materials and activities to help students develop skills in conflict resolution. The curriculum is available in two volumes: Volume 1 for grades K–2 and Volume 2 for grades 3–5. The price for Volume 2 is $35.00.
