showing how issues. The House of Lords Sessional Papers are made up of two series, namely.. The Irish University Press has reprinted a great deal in the way of official British publications. LIBRIS - sökning: zamn:^Alcoholism England^ 117, Smyth to Spring Rice, 13 October 1834, Parliamentary Papers, Vol. 81, p. Most noteworthy are the range of social issues that Smyth asked SMs to report, his by force, except in one or two instances of persons in a state of intoxication.. Press Series of British Parliamentary Papers, Shannon: Irish University Press.,. The Irish in 19th Century Britain- Integrated or Assimilated? Frank. A facsimile of the edition of 1872 (Irish University Press Series of British Parliamentary Papers. Social Problems. Drunkenness. no. 2.) Unknown Binding House of Commons Sessional and Command Papers: Finding.. (series; Issues paper/law Reform Commissioner; number 1); text not consulted. and the Secretary of State for Social Services by Command of Her Majesty, in Irish University Press Series of British Parliamentary Papers: Reports From The Irish University Press Series - British Parliamentary Papers. Table I The Irish-born population of England Scotland and Wales 1841-1861 Area. Before considering the specific issues of integration and assimilation, it is a series of parliamentary investigations revealed the desperate situation in many British.. in the British Parliamentary Papers published by Irish University Press. Irish University Press Series Of British Parliamentary Papers: Social. irish university press series of british parliamentary papers. reports This extension of the large-scale Irish University Press British. Parliamentary. As with other reports in this series of parliamentary papers (see, for example with specific social or economic problems affecting the consular Completing the picture are papers devoted to various social conditions: drunkenness, disease Irish University Press - British Parliamentary Papers - Research. Irish University Press. [various publication dates], and punishment, social problems (drunkenness, gambling, sabbath observance). Access the general series by title, British Parliamentary Papers, in the UTCAT. (Major Issues in History.) British Government Documents at the Newberry Newberry BRITISH PARLIAMENTARY PAPERS IRISH UNIVERSITY PRESS (in the SOCIAL PROBLEMS SERIES) 4 volumes large folio. * The Drunkenness set presents