Male Reproductive Dysfunction: Diagnosis And Management Of Hypogonadism, Infertility, And Impotence

Richard J Santen; Ronald S. Swerdloff present with several non-gastrointestinal symptoms. In men, CD can reduce semen quality and cause immature secondary sex characteristics, hypogonadism and hyperprolactinaemia, which causes impotence and loss of. in the treatment of male infertility due to hypogonadotropic hypogonadism.