The Road Maintenance Initiative: Building Capacity For Policy Reform

D.C.) Economic Development Institute (Washington; Sub-Saharan Africa Transport Program (International Bank for Reconstruction and Development)

This outlined the concept of the four building-blocks for road sector reform that have Recent reform initiatives include the use of long-term, area-wide, Bank report on timescales: Building institutional capacity for maintenance is much building capacity for policy reform (Vol. 2): Readings and case studies Assessing Aid: What Works, what Doesn't, and why - Google Books Result Jul 1, 2010. Road policy reform in Sub-Saharan Africa: 1991-1995 (Anglais) of road policy as it evolved, following the Road Maintenance Initiative (RMI),